TENTH SUCCESSIVE DAY OF THE GREAT BATTLE

Russians Concentrating and Preparing For Another Desperate Onslaught.

Japanese Report the Flanking of General Yamada and the Loss of Fourteen Guns, the First Reverse Since the Beginning of the War.

by the report that General Kuropatkin has resumed the offensive and by the news of the defeat of the Japanese command of General Yamada and capture of Lone Tree hill, which is represented to be the key to the position on the southwest fronts of the contending armies. If the report proves authentic that the Russians have crossed to the south side of the Shakac river, a later rise in the stream may have produced conditions seriously threatening failure of General Kuro-patkin's plans, for it is believed the advance force will be cut off from the reserves and the base of supplies and the retreat rendered problematical, it is, however, questionable if the ad- telegraphing late tonight, the corre vance movement had proceeded to the spondent says: point indicated. There seems no im-mediate prospect of a cessation of the fighting that has been in progress for the last ten days, although there are signs that on both sides the supply of the limit of endurance in the troomust have been nearly reached. JAPS WERE REPULSED.

Nine Regiments Attempted to Retake Lone Tree Hill.

Mukden, Oct. 18 .- Lone Tree hill, wo by the Russians after, a desperate struggle, was the object of a gallant and unsuccessful attempt at recapture by the Japanese. In spite of the awful slaughter with which they had been driven from the hill, the Japanese returned to the charge during the night of Oct. 17, recognizing that the hill was the key to the position on the south-west front. Nine regiments participated, creeping up through the night and delivering a furious assault at dawn. But the hill had been bought too dearly by the Russians to relinsh it and the Japanese were driven ack with terrible slaughter.

is reported that General Mistchen ko's Cossacks, under command of Adjutant Gavritoff, were engaged in a hot fight on Oct. 17 toward the southast. A Cossack horse battery silenced the Japanese guns and drove back several infantry battalions, but were unable to capture the guns, which the Japanese succeeded in carrying off. Shakhe station, or what is left of it, has been recaptured by the Russians, who will shortly reopen it for railway traffic with Mukden.

Impassable.

Mukden, Oct. 18 .- It is reported that the Russian army is advancing. Rain is hindering everything. The rivers are ankfull and the fords are impassable There are no bridges. Supplies of all sorts are delayed. Cossacks brought in captured guns and Japanese wounded prisoners on Oct. 17. Russian soldiers surrounded the prisoners and gave them bread and water and in other ways tried to relieve their wants. News has just been received that the Japanese left flank has been driven at Last.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 18.—2:50 a. m.— There is jubilation throughout the city over the news that General Kuropatkin day, which began with little heart, closed brighter. The crowds in the streets and the illuminations in honor of the czarevitch's name day gave a tinge of brilliancy to an evening otherwise depressing, through a constant drizzle of rain. Newsboys up to mid-night raced through the thoroughfares Russian victory." and crowds bought he papers greedily. Groups of men in rilliant uniforms or in evening dress at the hotels and restaurants discussed e change in the fortunes of war; but the population as a whole were slow to take fire. They had received the news of the earlier reverses stolidly, and now accepted reports of Russian successes is no attempt in the balance. There and the capture of guns quietly, with satisfaction, but with considerable re-forty-eight hours had been hinting that forty-eight hours had been hinting that the Russian army was on the eve of another advance, but it was thought here that the troops were too exhausted patkin may be able to again resume by more than a week of titanic struggle to engage in an immediate advance movement. Therefore the news of the definite resumtpion of the advance was calculated to arouse the greater satisfaction, but the realization of the significance of news permeates the masses here more slowly than in American cities. The kaleidomeates the masses here more slowly than in American cities. The kaleidoscopic changes on the Shakhe river have been too swift for the populace to follow, and so the better news from the front has been so far taken with comparative quiet. In the best informed circles, however, it is already accepted as true. It is believed that General Kuropatkin intended to signalize the czarevitch's fete by a victory, ize the czarevitch's fete by a victory, ropatkin's and Sakhareff's reports of just as Grand Duke Nicholas did at the Russian attack on and capture of

OT. PETERSBURG has been cheered out dispatches is attributed to the holiday, the censor's commission disbanding early. The Associated Press, however, hears on good authority that the emperor has received a telegram from General Kuropatkin reporting that the Russians are moving forward. The reverse sustained by General Yamada's column has not yet been reported by General Kuropatkin or General Sakharoff, except in a reference to an unsuc-cessful Japanese attack near Shakhe The Associated Press' Mukden dispatch evidently refers to this affair in reporting that the Japanese left Lad been beaten off with terrible slaughter and its retreat cut off by a Russian army corps. Another Associated Press dispatch from Mukden confirms the news of the Russian advance when, "It is rumored that we are moving

Might Prove Serious.

There is no official confirmation here of the report from Tokio that a Russian attack on the Japanese right on October 17 had been repulsed. If this report should prove true it may involve serious consequences for the Russians who crossed the Shakhe while the river was fordable. According to the Asso-ciated Press' Mukden dispatches, the water has since risen man-high in consequence of heavy rains, and therefor t would be well nigh impossible for th Russian army to recross the river, ow-ing to the absence of bridges. I would be equally difficult for the same reason to bring up supplies and am munition to enable General Kuropatki to follow up the advance. This may explain the statement in a Mukden dis patch to the Associated Press that th fighting was slackening the morning October 18.

RUSSIANS' FIRST SUCCESS.

Enveloped Yamada's Force and Captured Fourteen Guns.

Tokio, Oct. 18.-1 p. m.-The Russians scored their first success on the Shakhe river Sunday night, October 16, when they succeeded in enveloping a detach ment under General Yamada which was sent to assist part of the lef army. Yamada beat off a frontal at tack, but the Russians swept through both flanks. Most of the gunners and horses were shot. The Japanese abandoned nine field and five mountain guns. After a desperate hand-to-hand encounter. Yamada cut through the Bussian line and reached his former position. These are the first guns to be osition. These are the first guns to be ost by the Japanese during the war.

Another Great Battle. Field Marshal Oyama reports that the (Special to The Herald.) Oct. 18.—Fighting still continues all continues all most along the whole front. The Japanese have made an unsuccessful attempt to recapture Lone Tree hill. The Russian infantry met several attacks and repulsed them all. Heavy rains continue. There was a terrific cannonading last night. Every one is terribly exhausted, but full of fight.

The battle field of Lone Tree hill presents the most awful spectacle that can be conceived. Russian and Japanese lead are mingled in heaps in lnextricable concursion. The ground is stream with broken rifles that had been smashed in hand-to-hand fighting. Everything seems to have been utrized as weapobs. The Russian doctors are working heroically on the slopes of the hill in the attempt to save those of the wounded who still survive, but the Japanese keep up a sniping fire and reader the work of relief difficult and dangerous. The fighting today slackened considerably, owing to rain and the impassable condition of the roads. DIVORCE QUESTION AGAIN BEFORE THE EPISCOPAL CONVENTION

Boston, Oct. 18.—The divorce issue again came before the Episcopal convention today but no final action was taken on several resolutions referring to the subject which were presented. The house of bishops sent a message to the deputies informing them that the bishops had voted to forbid the re-marriage of any divorced persons, but when the matter was laid before the deputies on the question of concurrence Rev. Drs. Lewis Parks and W. D. Huntington, both of New York, immediately set the parliamentary machinery in motion to defeat, or at least sidetrack the bishops resolution. After a brief but spirited skirmish the matter was referred to the committee on canons, from which it can be called at any time. During the foremon several resolutions favoring a stricter canon on marriage and divorce were referred to a committee.
